

The Don Fraser Trio

Featuring Cool Jazz and Swing Standards, Blues and Latin.

The trio features some of Vancouver's finest musician's, each with established reputations in their own right. They perform regularly at top hotel lounges, private affairs, corporate events, clubs, festivals and dining establishments. The trio specializes in music performance from conversation level background music to featured entertainment.

This talented trio, led by drummer Don Fraser who has been performing professionally for many years and continues to be a contributing force on the Canadian music scene who has forged a style that is uniquely his own. Don is a respected and personable musician who has played with some of the best in the business. His many playing credits include a long time association with pianist Linton Garner, brother of jazz great Erroll Garner, composer of Misty, vocalists Michael Buble, Beverley Staunton band vocalist on Dancing With The Stars, Seattle jazz singer Woody Woodhouse, among others.

With a large repertoire of tunes the trio presents an entertaining blend of instrumental music from the great American song book that appeals to a mature clientele, from Duke Ellington, Gershwin, Nat King Cole, Cole Porter, Sinatra to cool jazz, ballads and latin rhythms.

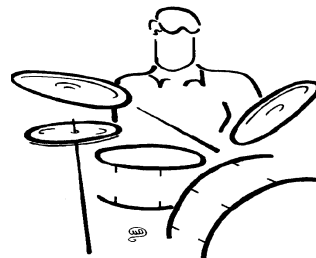

The trio's instrumentation includes piano or guitar, bass and tastefully played small drum set. This instrumentation has worked well when booked to perform at intimate restaurants or lounges where keeping the music volume at conversation level adds to the atmosphere of the venue. Wherever they perform the trio establishes a lasting impression for their professional presentation and music performance.

If the occasion allows, the trio can be augmented to feature a quality entertaining vocalist.

With Don's extensive performing experience, leadership and dedication to client satisfaction, nothing but sheer professionalism shines through, completing the essentials for an entertaining musical occasion.
